Daphne Bavelier: YOUR BRAIN ON VIDEO GAMES

1 Daphne is a) a doctor
b) a gamer
c) a cognitive researcher

2 She speaks about how a) media effects humans
b) video games effect human brain
c) Internet effects children

3 She is interested in how to make our brains a) faster and better
b) stronger
c) weaker

4 How many school children play video games?

a) Less than 50 %
b) 80 %
c) 90 %

5 The average age of a gamer is: a) 15 years old
b) 25 years old
c) 33 years old

6 Video games have an amazing impact on:

a) our everyday lives
b) children's lives
c) old people's lives

7 Media a) doesn't mention video games
b) bombards people about good and bad sides of playing video games

8 „Screentime make your sight worse“ true / false

9 „Games lead to attention problems and greater distractibility“ true / false

10 Multi-media tasking is a) Internet surfing

b) playing computer games

c) chatting

d) eating

e) listening to music

11 When playing video games in reasonable doses and right age....

a) ...video games are good for us.
b) ...wine is good for us.
c) ...video games are bad for us.

THE END – 14 minute

TASK: Compare your results

Find on line some attention quizes and play

HW: Watch a short video about teenagers addicted to video games and answer:

What is their life like?

How do they know they are addicted?

What do their parents say and do?