THE TEN RULES OF DIGITAL CLASSROOMS

BY ANTE ŽDERIĆ

Address your teachers and peers politely and with respect.

Post only the files and replies asked by the teachers.

Don't initiate personal communication within e-classroom.

Be careful about what you post– think twice before clicking.

Any mockery or using bad language is strictly forbidden.

Do not copy other students' homework assignments.

When you write your post, follow the spelling and grammar rules.

Avoid using memes, GIFs or emoticons (all except like/ yes).

In online communication using block letters is 'shouting'!

Respect the rules of copyright law on the Internet.
